

Trains Driven by Brothers Collide

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Two freight trains driven by two brothers collided head on at a combined speed of more than 90 miles an hour today, but neither brother was killed.

Stan Dixon, 30, was driving a diesel locomotive pulling 40 freight cars loaded with steel and refrigerators toward Melbourne at 45 miles an hour.

Brother Brian, 28, was going north in another diesel at about the same speed with a chain of 30 empty freight cars behind him.

Stan was trapped in his cabin for three hours and was taken to a hospital with multiple fractures.

Brian saw the collision coming, dived into the passageway behind him, and emerged with only cuts and possibly rib injuries.

Thinks DeGaulle Will Be Thwarted

ROME (AP)—Italian Vice Premier Pietro Nenni says if French President Charles de Gaulle's forces weather the March elections in France, the European Common Market should override his attempts to keep Britain out of the European economic community.

Experiment Station report for 24 hours ending at 7 a.m. Monday, High 42, Low 22

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Slightly warmer readings are expected in Arkansas tonight with no precipitation of consequence forecast for the next five days, the U. S. Weather Bureau reported. The low forecast tonight is 16-26.

Overnight low temperatures ranged from seven degrees at Fayetteville to 27 at Pine Bluff and El Dorado.

Rainfall for the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. included traces at Fayetteville and Harrison.

May as Well Be an Obstetrician

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Patrolman Clifford Lauderhahn might as well be an obstetrician.

He assisted recently in the seventh delivery of his police career — a 6-pound, 4½-ounce boy to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Poe, who were headed for a hospital but were forced to stop when the birth became imminent.

Would Let in Red Newsmen

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP)—Author John Steinbeck thinks Soviet newsmen should be sent to report the war in South Vietnam.

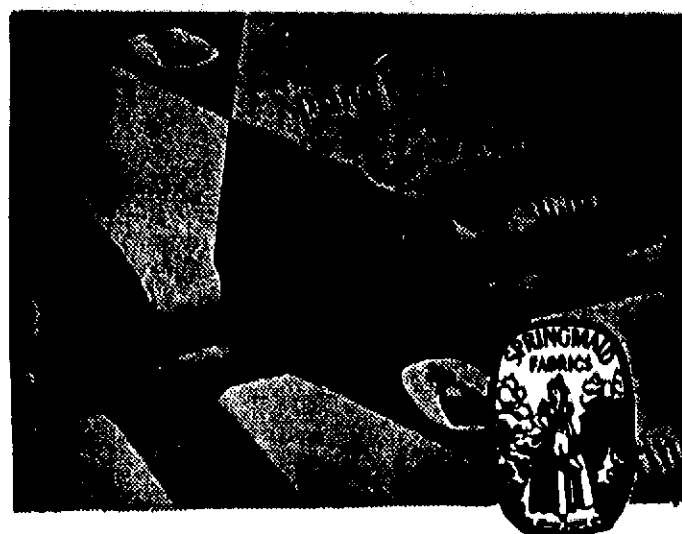

In turn, he'd like them to obtain a visa for him so he could report from North Vietnam.

He made his suggestions Thursday in his copyrighted column in the Long Island paper Newsday.

If the deal can be worked out, he promised to try to get the Soviets admitted to the war zone.

Romney's Son to Be Married

BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Mich. (AP) — Scott Romney, son of Michigan Gov. and Mrs. George Romney, will be married next December to Ronna Eileen Stern.

Miss Stern is a senior at Oakland University and her fiancé is in his first year at Harvard Law School. The wedding announcement was made Tuesday.

March of Dimes Teen Age Program Sets Pace in Birth Defects Battle

Paul Petersen, the 21-year-old television, motion picture and recording star, plans to some day "get married and have at least nine kids."

"I also want to adopt all the orphans I can from around the world and bring them all together each year during the holiday season," says the young man who once played the role of Jeff on the Donna Reed TV show.

Like thousands of members of his generation, Paul perhaps best demonstrates his love for children through his efforts to fight birth defects. He is national chairman of the March of Dimes Teen Age Program (TAP) for the second consecutive year.

The National Foundation-March of Dimes is conducting an all-out war against birth defects which strike 250,000 infants born in the United States each year. As national TAP chairman, Paul is working to stimulate interest in this vital problem among young people—the nation's future parents.

Thousands of TAP members across the nation are taking an active part in the fight against birth defects through year-round programs of education, service and fund raising. A good portion of the contributions raised by TAP members has helped the March of Dimes finance its rapidly growing nationwide network of 77 birth defects centers for diagnosis and treatment of infants born less than perfect.

To carry on this fight, teenagers have raised money for the March of Dimes by holding dances, basketball games, car washes, skating parties, and by selling everything from balloons to spaghetti dinners.

Who are these teens? And how have they channeled their energies into the TAP movement?

Paul Petersen, a native of Glendale, Calif., is one teenage idol who is serious about education. In high school he maintained a straight A average, and in college he is now an honor student in night school and university extension courses.

For two years Paul was TAP chairman in Los Angeles. Then in 1965, he was named national co-chairman along with Luci Baines Johnson, the younger daughter of the President.

The National Foundation offers the Luci Baines Johnson Service Award to young adults who best exemplify the significant contribution of youth to the fight against birth defects.

The TAP co-chairman of Baltimore, Md., 18-year-old David Green, is the 1966 national winner of this award. Among his accomplishments was the organization of educational, service and fund-raising programs involving more than 75 youth groups. This year he is president of his high school student council.

A 17-year-old Denver, Colo., resident is the western area winner. Carolyn Beck, state TAP chairman and a high school honor student, raised $1,400 for

The Salk Institute for Biological Studies in 1965 with the help of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Thomas M. Johnston, 18, Warsaw, Ind., the midwest area winner, organized a series of dances to raise funds for the March of Dimes and built his chapter TAP membership to more than 400. A former high school honor student and president of his student council, he is now studying at Indiana University.

Southern area winner, John Thomason, 17, Corpus Christi, Tex., was able to organize 800 teenagers in a successful shopping center sale to raise money to fight birth defects. He is now a student at Baylor University.

Many March of Dimes TAP volunteers are honor students, leaders in school and members

SMU on Top of SWC; Hogs Split

By DENNE H. FREEMAN

Associated Press Writer

The unflappable Southern Methodist Mustangs occupied their customary spot atop the Southwest Conference basketball chase today, but had to share it after the first week of play with surprising Texas Christian.

The defending champion Mustangs clipped Baylor 85-83 in overtime then coasted to an 80-67 victory over Texas A&M in Dallas.

Texas Christian, sparked by deadeye Wayne Kreis, tripped Texas Tech 71-65 and displayed its offensive firepower in a 96-82 romp over Texas.

Texas, rated to be one of the league's favorites, started the week off well by whipping Arkansas 71-62 at Austin before falling to the Horned Frogs.

The Longhorns are lumped in a tie for third place with A&M, Rice and Arkansas, all with 1-1 records. The Aggies beat Rice 69-66. The Owls upset Baylor 65-56 and Arkansas clipped Texas Tech 70-65.

Baylor and Tech are alone in the cellar.

SMU gets a stern test Tuesday night at Austin when it meets Texas. The Mustangs entertain Rice at Dallas Saturday night.

TCU battles Texas A&M Tuesday night at College Station and has an off day Saturday.

Arkansas is at Waco to engage Baylor Tuesday night and entertains A&M Saturday at Little Rock.

Texas hosts Texas Tech in a day game Saturday at Austin.

Rice meets Texas Tech in Lubbock Tuesday.

Baylor hosts Arkansas Tuesday, but is idle Saturday.

Charles Beasley of SMU paces conference scorers with a 22.5 average. He had 30 points in the Baylor game.

Tommy Rowland of Arkansas, the second leading scorer in conference play with a 19.5 average, leads all shooters over the season with a 20.5 average.

Southwest Conference teams play no interconference games this week. They have a 30-49 won-loss record against non-conference opponents.

Buckpasser Going After 14 Straight

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Buckpasser, the 1966 horse of the year, goes after his 14th straight victory in the $50,000 San Fernando Stakes at Santa Anita this week in his first start as a 4-year-old.

The pride and joy of owner Ogden Phipps, trainer Eddie Deloy and jockey Braulio Baeza probably will be the odds-on choice Saturday in the 1 1/4 miles test that is a stepping stone to the $100,000 Charles H. Strub Stakes at the California track Jan. 28.

The famed son of Tom Fool, with earnings of $1,237,174 in 25 starts, needs only $4,000 to move past Carry Back and become No. 4 in the all-time money winning list. Kelso leads with $1,977,896. Round Table is second with $1,749,869. Nashua third with $1,288,565 and Carry Back fourth with $1,241,165.

The San Fernando headlines the week's thoroughbred activities.

Native Diver, now an 8-year-old, romped to a four length victory in the $62,050 San Carlos Handicap at Santa Anita in last Saturday's top race. The $6.40 favorite won with authority over Horse Bar and sped the seven furlongs in 1:22.

Bobcats Bow to Smackover Buckaroos

By LARRY DON WRIGHT

Hope Star Sportswriter

The Hope Bobcats were unable to crack a rough Buckaroo zone defense and consequently dropped their first conference game of the year at Smackover, 49-25, Saturday night.

The Bucks combined accurate shooting with the outstanding defensive effort to keep the Cats on their heels the entire night.

On the other hand the Cats never seemed to get any shots; and when they did manage to get a few their shooting was off. Several times through the course of the game the Bobcats went as much as two minutes without scoring.

In general the game just moved too slowly for the Cats, who throughout the season have concentrated on a fast type of action. The usually heavily-relied on fast break never got off the ground as the Bucks managed to set their own slow pace.

Saturday's contest was a complete reversal of the Cats showing on the previous night against the Fairview Cardinals, whom they beat, 51-50. Friday's performance had to be the Cat's most impressive of the season in every department but more so than was Saturday's the most discouraging.

Hope's 25-point total was the lowest a Bobcat five has produced in a single game in the past several years.

The first quarter was typical of the entire game as the Cats passed back and forth trying vainly to find shots in a defense which wouldn't yield any.

The period ended with Smackover already commanding a substantial lead of 15-5. By half-time it was 25-14.

The Buck's Mike Holloway sparked the Smackover squad throughout the game and led both teams in scoring with 22 points to his credit.

Danny Griffiths led the Bobcats in scoring with 10.

In the junior high contest the Smackover team also prevailed as they laid it out to the Bobkittens, 31-17.

Both the Bobcats and the Bobkittens will see action again this weekend on Friday and Saturday. They will play against Magnolia and Arkadelphia both slated for Jones Field House.

Carter Proves He Can Play With Big Boys

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Virgil Carter was a man on a mission in the Senior Bowl, and the Brigham Young quarterback can now contentedly return to studying statistics and mathematics.

The passing whiz proved to himself he can play with the big boys of college football, admitting, "That is what I was hoping."

Carter, who led the nation in total offense last fall with 2,545 yards running and passing, guided the North to a 35-13 victory over the South in the 18th annual Senior Bowl Saturday.

The slender sharpshooter hit on seven of 12 passes for 121 yards, and tossed touchdown strikes of 43 and 16 yards.

"I was out to prove I was a good quarterback," Carter said after pocketing his winner's check for $1,000.

"I was very disappointed after playing in the Blue-Gray game at Montgomery two weeks ago, and deep down in my heart I was determined to do better."

Carter was the starter for the North in the Blue-Gray game, but hit on only six of 20 passes and was benched throughout the second half when his team staged a winning comeback.

Carter pointed out he was helped by the bruising running attack led by Bob Grim of Oregon State, Harry Wilson of Nebraska and Ray McDonald of Idaho, who helped roll up 264 yards rushing for the North.

The pro scouts at the game had their eyes on Grim, who caught a 43-yard scoring pass and set up two other North touchdowns with long runs.

Wilson, who gained 120 yards rushing, and McDonald, who ran for 88 yards, also boosted their chances.

So did Bubba Smith, All-America end from Michigan State who led the North defense that yielded only 23 yards rushing.

Smith was voted the North's top lineman and the game's most valuable player.

Grim was chosen the North's best back. Terry Southall, who threw two touchdown passes for the South, was named the Rebels' top back and linebacker.

Ken Avery of Southern Mississippi was chosen the South's best lineman.

Break to Win

Playoff Bowl

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Johnny Unitas threw more passes and completed more than anybody ever did before, but Baltimore needed a break in the last minutes to beat Philadelphia in the Playoff Bowl 20-14 Sunday.

Unitas fired 33 times and found his target 19 times—both records for the National Football League's seven-year-old game between runners-up—but the great Colt quarterback hit only once for a score.

And the Eagles, seven-point underdogs, seemed on the road to an upset until Jerry Logan stole a pass in the dying moments of battle from Jack Concanon to set Baltimore up on the Eagle 35.

Aided by a pass interference call at the six, when Jim Nittle got in the way of Ray Berry, the Colts scored with 14 seconds to go on a one-yard run by Tom Matte.

When the big break came,

UCLA Still Considered Top Team

By RON RAPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer

John Wooden and his UCLA basketball team still are up in Washington wondering whether they'll escape with their unbeaten string intact, but Norm Sloan and the North Carolina State squad are glad just to escape from Maryland.

Wooden's Bruins face Washington tonight, and the Huskies can take heart from Washington State's performance Saturday against UCLA. The Cougars, only 5-6 for the season, actually led the top-ranked Bruins at one point in the second half before succumbing 76-67.

Lew Alcindor, UCLA's great sophomore center, left the game for a while midway through the second half when he incurred his fourth foul with the Bruins leading 52-48.

The Cougars went ahead 54-53, but UCLA regained the lead and put the game away when Alcindor came back in the game during the closing minutes. Lew finished with 28 points.

As for North Carolina State's problems, they came at the hands of Maryland and a referee's reaction to Sloan's displeasure at the officiating.

Maryland's Jay McMillen had missed the second of two technical fouls that referee George Conley called on Sloan, when the coach reportedly shouted "Isn't that too bad." Conley said the game was over with Maryland the winner 60-55.

There was 1:15 left on the clock. Afterwards, Conley stayed in the dressing room and refused to discuss the incident. Sloan said he didn't want to talk about it either.

North Carolina State's next game is Wednesday against third-ranked North Carolina, which edged Duke 59-56 Saturday on Larry Miller's lay-up and Bob Lewis' free throw in the last five seconds.

UCLA's other games this week are both at home, against California on Friday and Stanford on Saturday.

Second-ranked Louisville, idle Saturday, plays Southern Illinois Wednesday and Bradley on Saturday.

Fourth-ranked New Mexico, which bounced Seattle 80-60 Saturday, faces Wyoming Friday and Denver Saturday. Fifth-rated Houston, idle over the weekend, plays West Texas State Saturday.

Texas Western, No. 6, completed a two-game sweep of Southern Mississippi Saturday with a 76-63 victory and Wednesday faces West Texas State.

Providence, No. 7, was knocked off in overtime by Canisius Saturday 79-73, despite 44 points by the Friars' Jim Walker, the nation's leading scorer. Providence plays Oglethorpe Tuesday and Duquesne Saturday.

Cincinnati, No. 8, had to go into double overtime Saturday before finally edging North Texas State 74-71. Cincinnati plays Dayton Wednesday and St. Louis Saturday.

Kansas, No. 9, crushed Oklahoma 97-73 and plays Missouri Saturday. Mississippi State, tied with Bradley for 10th in the poll, bounced Georgia 92-63 Saturday, while Bradley edged Drake 77-75.

Mongolia Set for Olympics

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mongolia is the first country to register for the 1968 Olympic Games in Mexico City, the Olympic Organizing Committee said Sunday. Mongolia will send 33 contestants to the games, 24 men and nine women.

Philadelphia had led since the second quarter when Concanon and King Hill led the Eagles to two touchdowns and a 14-10 margin at halftime.

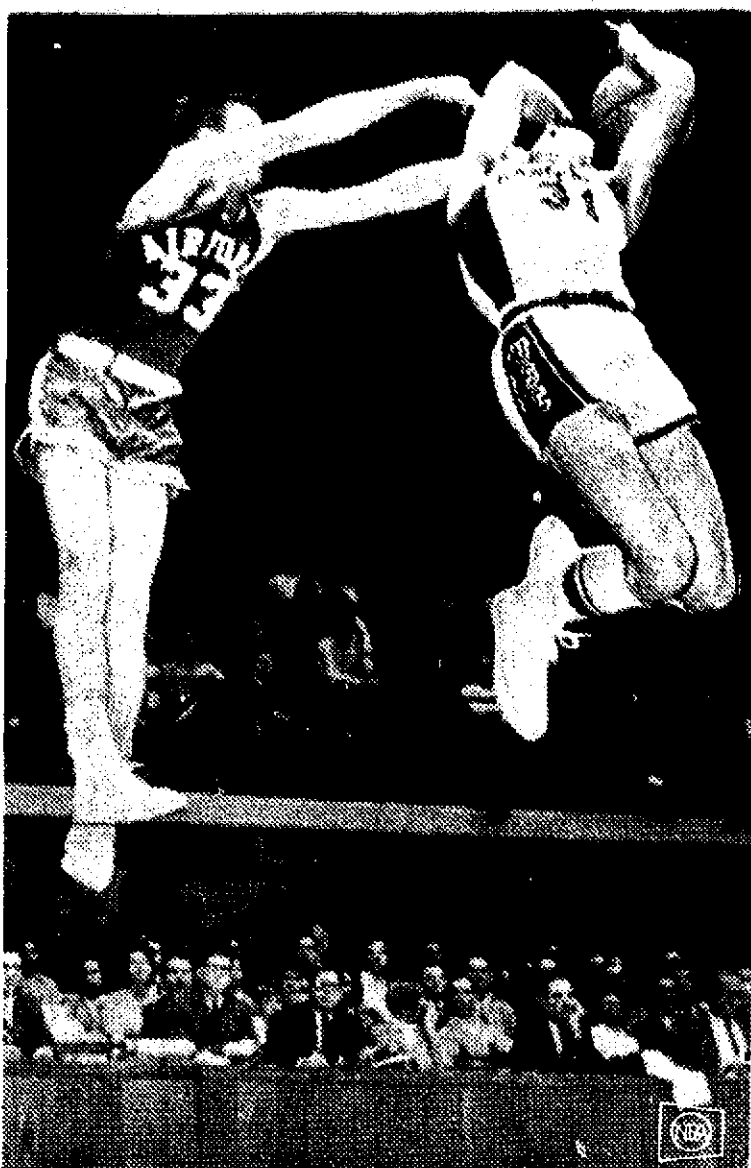

Some 58,088 fans turned out to see the runners-up of the Eastern and Western Conferences.

Hill quarterbacked the Eagles to their first touchdown, hitting Ron Goodwin a key 12-yard pass at the Colt five and scoring himself on a one-yard sneak.

Then Concanon came in, completed four straight passes, and the Eagles moved 60 yards to score on a two-yard lunge by Israel Lang, a 232-pound fullback judged the game's most valuable player.

The Colts opened the scoring with a 23-yard field goal by Lou Michaels in the first quarter, then tallied on a 14-yard pass from Unitas to Berry.

Another field goal by Michaels from 14 yards narrowed the margin to 14-13 in the third period, but it didn't look like Baltimore would catch up until Logan's crucial steal.

SWAN LAKE REVISITED. That's what it appears to be. Actually Fred Budinger (33) of Air Force and Skip Harlicka (31) of South Carolina are having a friendly battle for the ball.

Dietzel Faces Possible Restrictions

By JACK DONOVAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Paul F. Dietzel, once the coach of national championship caliber football teams, faced severe National Collegiate Athletic Association restrictions today in rebuilding the University of South Carolina's athletic program.

The NCAA Council Sunday put South Carolina on probation for two years, banned its football and basketball teams from postseason competition and denied it participation rights in the collegiate body's lucrative television program.

The Council alleged the school violated NCAA principles governing academic standards and financial aid. It said four basketball players and three football players were involved.

The NCAA policy is not to reveal names of persons involved in the alleged incidents.

Dietzel was not involved in the infractions. A moulder of national ranked teams at Louisiana State, he left there several years ago to go to Army, then quit the Military Academy last year to go to South Carolina with the aim of building strong football teams.

After a losing season in 1966 it appeared his rebuilding program suffered a new setback.

One of the principals involved in the NCAA sanctions was believed to be Mike Grosso, outstanding basketball player, who was first declared ineligible for competition by the Atlantic Coast Conference last year.

Grosso was admitted to the university, although he reportedly failed to meet the regular published entrance requirements of South Carolina. This was one of the citations brought forth by the NCAA Committee on Infractions.

The NCAA also reprimanded and censured Texas Western College, last year's national collegiate basketball champions, and removed Texas A&M University from probation.

The Council said it found South Carolina in alleged violation of the NCAA constitution and bylaws in seven instances in 1965 and 1966 and through the first semester of the 1966-67 school year.

Marvin Bass was head football coach and athletic director and Frank McGuire was head basketball coach during the 1965-66 academic year.

It was the second time a university at which McGuire was coaching was placed on probation by the NCAA.

On Jan. 10, 1961, the University of North Carolina basketball team was put on probation for one year for improper recruiting of prospects and excessive entertainment of prospects and their parents, NCAA records show.

The NCAA said Texas Western allegedly violated principles governing financial assistance to athletes and provisions governing individual eligibility for a postseason football game.

Texas Western used 12 players in the Dec. 31, 1965 Sun Bowl game against Texas Christian who were eligible by the school's rules but ineligible under NCAA requirements.

The violation "resulted from a breakdown in institutional com-

Rangers Still Making a Comeback

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The longer the New York Rangers stay up, the better Emile Francis sleeps.

The Rangers, whose mid-season sestas have kept them out of the National Hockey League playoffs seven of the last eight years, began the second half of an eye-opening comeback season Sunday night by edging the Montreal Canadiens 2-1 and grabbing the league lead.

Bob Nevin's goal with less than a 1-1 tie, giving the Rangers their 18th victory in 36 games and sending them two points up on the Chicago Black Hawks, who were upended by last-place Boston 3-1.

New York won only 18 games all last season, finishing in the NHL cellar and accounting for a winter of sleepless nights for Manager Coach Francis.

"My habits haven't changed," the peppery pilot said after Orlando Kurtenbach and Nevin triggered the late rally that erased a 1-0 Montreal lead. "I always slept good after we won one. The trouble was, we didn't win often enough."

Besides breaking a first-place deadlock with Chicago, Sunday night's come-from-behind victory sent the Rangers five points ahead of third-place Toronto, beaten by Detroit 3-1, and nine up on the fourth-place Canadiens.

The Bruins, who had labored through a stretch of eight winless games, beginning Dec. 21, knocked off the Hawks behind Ed Johnston's brilliant goaltending and tallies by Bob Dillabough, Johnny McKenzie and Bob Woytowich.

Johnston stopped 29 shots, including a diving save on Bobby Hull in the first period after Ken Wharram's power play goal had sent the Hawks ahead 1-0. Dillabough tied it while the Bruins were short-handed later in the first session and McKenzie drove a rebound past Chicago goalie Dennis DeJordy less than a minute later. Woytowich provided the insurance with an unassisted goal in the third period.

Third-period goals by Andy Bathgate, Parker MacDonald and Paul Henderson sparked the Red Wings' victory over Toronto. Defenseman Marcel Pronovost, a former Red Wing, ruined goalie Roger Crozier's shutout bid with less than 3 1/2 minutes to play.

Penalties to Howie Young and Gordie Howe of Detroit, for a brawl with Toronto's Larry Jeffrey, gave the Maple Leafs a manpower advantage in the closing minutes, but they were unable to break through Crozier.

Bobby Baker Slated to Go to Trial

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Bobby Baker goes on trial today, accused of income tax evasion, larceny and conspiracy. The issue of electronic eavesdropping is expected to loom large.

Baker, 38, is a former secretary to Senate Democrats. He rose from Senate page boy to riches as a Washington insider. His attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, did not tip off his defense strategy in advance, but it is expected to stress bugging.

The government has acknowledged it recorded Baker's voice several times while monitoring hotel or office suits of Baker acquaintances in Washington, Las Vegas and Miami.

It further conceded that the bugging violated Baker's constitutional privacy, but it insisted that the indictment was not based on the overheard conversations.

In pretrial skirmishing, U. S. Dist. Judge Oliver Casch, who will preside at the trial, said the

Powell's Fate Up to Congress

By JACK MILLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — A reckoning that could limit — or even end — the congressional career of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell begins today.

The Harlem Democrat today faces an attempt to break his greatest grip on power, the chairmanship of the House Education and Labor Committee.

And Tuesday, when the 90th Congress convenes, an attempt will be made to deny a seat to the swinging Negro minister who has represented New York City's 18th District since 1945.

Some of Powell's troubles have stemmed from failure to pay a $164,000 libel judgment. In New York, Powell faces a jail term on a contempt of court charge.

A House committee recently probed Powell's activities as committee chairman and charged he deceptively used official travel credit cards.

Powell returned to Washington Sunday from a vacation in the Caribbean.

Powell said he'd be ready to speak in his own defense when the first move against him is made.

That is to come at the House Democrats caucus. Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., has promised to move that the committee on committees be instructed to give Powell's chairmanship to Rep. Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky.

House Speaker John W. McCormack Sunday night made an eloquent final appeal to a group of House Democrats for a plan to soften the blow against Powell.

Instead of taking the chairmanship away from Powell outright, McCormack suggested, Powell would be asked to step aside temporarily while a special committee investigated charges against him.

Members of the liberal Democratic Study Group reportedly were moved by McCormack's words.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford indicated support Sunday for the idea that defense had failed to show any "causal connection" between the eavesdropping and the indictment. But he said Williams could raise the issue anew at the trial.

A big ceremonial courtroom in the U. S. Courthouse is set aside for the selection of a jury from among more than 200 persons called for possible duty. Later, the trial is to move to Casch's regular courtroom.

Baker came here as a boy of 14 from Pickens, S.C., and rose to be majority secretary in the Senate. He was a confidant of Lyndon B. Johnson when the latter was majority leader.

It later developed that Baker had amassed wealth in deals in vending machines, real estate, the plush motel business and other ventures.

HOPE (ARK) STAR Tried to Aid Horse, Now Faces Lawsuit

By FRANCES LEWINE
FAIRFAX, Va. (AP) — Because she tried to rescue a starving horse three years ago, Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy faces a $30,000 civil suit in Circuit Court here today.

Suing the wife of the New York senator is farmer-horse breeder Nicholas N. Zemo of Washington, D.C. He has been convicted of cruelty to seven horses, including the thoroughbred Mrs. Kennedy befriended.

That horse, a yearling named Pande, died Oct. 13, 1963, five days after Mrs. Kennedy came to its aid.

On Nov. 7, 1963, Zemo was convicted of cruelty to animals, fined $250 and given a six-month suspended jail sentence after Mrs. Kennedy testified about rescuing his "obviously starving" horse from a chicken coop.

Now, Zemo is suing wealthy Mrs. Kennedy for damages on the ground that she directed her groom, Richard Mayberry, to take Pande to her McLean, Va., home, and then "refused to return the horse — and has never returned the horse."

Lawyers for Mrs. Kennedy said she would be in court for the scheduled hearing of the case.

Mrs. Kennedy, 38, was riding in the Virginia countryside with some of her children when they came upon Pande.

In papers filed in answer to Zemo's suit, Mrs. Kennedy's lawyer said the horse appeared to Mrs. Kennedy "to be starving, literally reduced to skin and bones and in great danger of dying."

The lawyers said Mrs. Kennedy directed Mayberry to lead the horse to her home and give it attention.

She also notified the Animal Welfare League of Fairfax County, Mrs. Kennedy's lawyers stated, and a league agent promptly went to the defendant's premises and "assumed responsibility for the horse and its further care."

The league brought the cruelty to animals charges against Zemo.

Congress to Look Anew at Vietnam War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress starts taking a new look today at the war in Vietnam.

Richard M. Helms, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, testifies at a closed meeting of a special Senate CIA subcommittee headed by Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga.

The CIA has been reported as skeptical of whether the bombing of North Vietnam targets is damaging Hanoi's will to continue the war. Helms is expected to discuss this.

Next Monday, Secretary of State Dean Rusk briefs the Senate Foreign Relations Committee headed by Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark. That session also will be closed. But Rusk will testify before the committee in a public session Jan. 23.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield says recent remarks from Hanoi could be indicators of willingness to talk peace, but Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to Saigon labels them public opinion plays.

Connally Didn't Want Kennedy Trip

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Gov. John B. Connally has indicated he did not want John F. Kennedy to take the trip to Dallas in November, 1963, when the President was assassinated and the governor wounded.

"I reminded him he had not made a political appearance in Texas since the 1960 campaign and that if he spoke at four fund-raising dinners, he would be accused of coming to Texas just to take back a lot of money," Connally says in a copy-right interview in the Dallas Times Herald.

The visit to Texas was of the President's own making, Connally says.

Connally made the statement in reaction to Look magazine's first installment of a four-part, 60,000-word serialization of William Manchester's controversial account of the assassination "The Death of a President."

Manchester reports in the book that five prominent Democrats strongly urged Kennedy to keep Dallas off his Texas itinerary in November, 1963, because of what they felt was a highly charged atmosphere of antagonism toward him in the city.

Manchester does not mention Connally, who was Kennedy's first secretary of the navy before he resigned to run for governor, as one of those who advised the President to skip Dallas on that fateful tour. The author wrote that Kennedy himself felt the trip was "vexatious and unappealing," but he undertook it for political reasons.

Manchester indicates that then Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson brought about the trip because of his desire for Democratic party harmony in Texas.

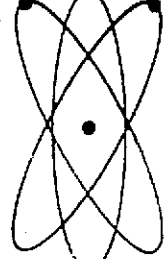

The Times Herald, in a story from Washington by Margaret Mayer, quotes Connally as saying Kennedy first mentioned his desire to make a political trip to Texas in the spring of 1963 during two White House conferences. The President wanted to speak at four fund-raising dinners, Connally said.

The governor said he finally agreed to one fund-raising dinner, the one that was to be held in Austin on the night of Nov. 22. Politics were to be soft-pedaled on the remainder of the trip, Connally is quoted as saying.

Maybe our '67 Pontiac is breaking sales records because people don't want to wait until '68 for a copy.

Our engineers have become used to seeing their ideas show up on other cars. Two years later. And apparently, have a lot of car buyers. Because 1967 Pontiacs are selling faster than 1966 Pontiacs. And that was a record year.

When you think about it, why should you wait around for innovations like our disappearing windshield wipers? Or our imaginative options like our exclusive hood mounted tach? Especially when you consider that our engineers would fit in a Pontiac case with anything less than a standard 430 cubic inch V-8 engine with a 100-hp rating. Or our revolutionary Overhead Cam Six. Or the new safety features like GM's energy absorbing steering column and a dual master cylinder brake system with warning lamp.

It's short, our engineers seem to have done it again. They may even start asking for royalties on the copies.

Q—Our doctor frequently prescribes sulfa drugs and antibiotics for my children when they have colds or sore throats. Won't the germs build up an immunity to these drugs?

A—The viruses that cause colds and many other respiratory illnesses are not susceptible to these drugs. The germs that are susceptible do, indeed, become resistant to them and therefore harder to treat. This has already created a problem and is a valid reason for reserving these valuable drugs for the more serious diseases and only those that can be shown to be caused by nonresistant germs.

Life Master Don von Elsner of Hilo, Hawaii, created a character named Jason Winkman a few years back. Jason, a bachelor, is a professional duplicate bridge player who gets involved in murder mysteries while playing in bridge tournaments.

The latest Winkman paperback is called "The Ace of Spies." We aren't qualified as literary experts but the book is exciting and it includes a lot of good pointers on bridge.

At the start of the book Winkman is playing in a sectional tournament in Brooklyn. His partner is Cmdr. Brett Kostner, USN. Kostner and Wink served together in World War II and Kostner had remained in Naval Intelligence.

Kostner, North, opens with one club. East bids two clubs. Winkman identifies this two club call as a "Michaels cue bid." This bid shows a weak major suit hand.

Wink checks for aces by use of Blackwood and contracts for six no-trump. His reasoning is that his partner almost surely has a long club suit and that West will open a spade or heart into Wink's powerful major suit holding.

Unfortunately for Wink's calculations, West leads the three of diamonds. South's queen is covered by East's king and the slam contract is set.

Played from the North seat the hand is cold for six clubs or no-trump. Wink looks rather silly but shift the king of diamonds from East to West and South makes the slam while North must set with a diamond opening.

By RAY DE CRANE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

If you are a landlord, not all of the rent you receive yearly is taxable. It is possible, in fact, to show a net loss from the operation of rental property and to deduct this loss from other income.

In general, charges offsetting gross rental income include depreciation, repairs and other expenses.

Depreciation enables you to recover your investment in the property over its useful life. The depreciation allowance is based upon the cost of the building, with the cost of the land excluded from consideration.

For illustrative purposes, assume one-half of a two-family home costing $35,000 ($30,000 for the building, $5,000 for the land) was rented all last year for $175 a month. Here is how the various charges would be used to offset the $2,100 gross rents.

Internal Revenue Service puts the useful life of a new frame home at 40 years. This provides an annual depreciation allowance of 2½ per cent. Since no depreciation is permitted on the living quarters of the owner, the 2½ per cent rate is based upon the $15,000 value of the tenant's suite. This produces an annual rate of $375. This is the first write-off against the gross rental income.

What were the repair expenses for last year? Here is a typical allowance:

One-half exterior painting	$300.00
Furnace repair	26.75
Plumbing	18.50
Carpentry	47.25

Decorate tenant's suite

272.00

$664.50

Repairs that benefit the entire home are taken at 50 per cent. Repairs for the exclusive benefit of the tenant's quarters are considered at 100 per cent.

There generally are other expenses in connection with the rental property. A statement attached to your return might contain such items as:

One-half real estate taxes	$310.00
One-half mortgage interest	225.00
One-half landscaping	40.00
One-half water charges	28.75
One-half fire insurance	33.00

$636.75

The other half of the real estate taxes and mortgage interest would be included in the taxpayer's itemized deductions on Form 1040. The remaining half of the last three items, being personal expenses, would not be deductible on his return.

Depreciation, repairs and other expenses total $1,678.25. When deducted from the $2,100 gross rental income a net of $421.75 is produced.

frightened little girls this must happen to; how many boys go unpunished. The policeman told me hundreds of cases are hushed up — you see, though the girl's name isn't mentioned, it gets out, and parents would rather not prosecute than take the chance. Sometimes the boys threaten, and the girl never tells, even her folks. There's always the stigma . . . they think.

Believe me, the boys who raped our daughter will appear in court! Because we faced this thing squarely, she is putting it behind her, becoming again the happy little girl she was, knowing she is blameless and we believe her. I just want to tell others: If it happens to your family — and it might — don't run and hide. When you let the boy off scot-free to attack again, you are putting other girls in jeopardy. And you aren't standing by your daughter, who needs your trust, not your secrecy. — MRS. X

Dear Helen: Why must all your friends think there is something wrong with you just because you aren't breaking your neck to get married? I am 35, have a fine career, have yet to find a man I'd give it up for, or one who would allow me to keep it without constantly belittling me to build his own ego. Yet people give me strange looks, assume I'm being a spinster more. Can't these women, who many times hate their husbands, leave me alone? — HAPPIER THAN THEY

Dear HTT: You're doing fine — ignore the Matchmakers (who just can't help themselves). If they persist, tell them "Better dead than wed" and change the subject.

I've always said that marriage isn't for everybody — and perhaps this is one reason there are so many divorces. People who would be happier and better-adjusted single are pushed into matrimony by public opinion . . . often expressed by those who hate their mates. Silly, isn't it? So let them know it with your "understanding smile." — H.

Volunteer to Be Inducted

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A Seattle Peace Corps volunteer who protested being pulled out of the Philippines for the draft is scheduled to be inducted next Tuesday.

The volunteer, Fred Lonidier, 24, wrote to the Manila Times after receiving his induction notice and said it was a waste of time and money to train Peace Corps volunteers and then draft them. He also termed the Peace Corps a political gimmick.

He joined the Peace Corps after he was classified 1A in the draft.

There are 277,000 known spaces of bottles.

Hints That Communists Are Softening

WASHINGTON (AP) — For months there have been hints — or they could be so interpreted — that the North Vietnamese Communists might be softening conditions under which they might talk peace with the United States.

There is a vast distinction between agreeing to peace talks and a final agreement on peace. There has been no visible change at all on the conditions for peace laid down by the North Vietnamese long ago.

They put forth four points and have not departed from them. So any hints of a willingness to start talking peace — even if such talks began — is a long way from a final settlement.

But the Johnson administration has been anxious to get the talks started, at least, since they would have to be a necessary preliminary to any settlement anyway.

Last fall, for instance, the administration proposed peace negotiations, only to see the gesture spurned by the Reds. Nevertheless, it was in the very process of spurning that some observers felt they saw less rigid-ty by Hanoi.

Now, according to the New York Times, Premier Phan Van Dong of North Vietnam says his government's four-point demands are not necessarily conditions for peace talks but rather a "basis for settlement of the Vietnam problem."

The Times' correspondent, Harrison E. Salisbury, interviewed the premier and quoted him as saying, "The big question is to reach a settlement which can be enforced."

In this interview the North Vietnamese leader expressed great willingness to wait for peace talks or a peace settlement, saying, "We cannot press history forward."

This "we're not in a rush" attitude is, and has been, exactly the American mind which wants peace and wonders how such a small nation as North Vietnam has the gall to keep on fighting a giant like the United States.

But the North Vietnamese mind is Asian, not American, and can be very ambiguous. Its ambiguities in this war go away back. For instance:

Even more than a year ago it was not clear from North Vietnamese statements whether it was saying the United States must withdraw all its forces before peace talks can begin or simply saying they must be withdrawn before there can be

Monday, January 9, 1967

The first of North Vietnam's four conditions for a peaceful solution demanded that all U.S. troops and weapons must be withdrawn and there must be an end to acts of war against the North before there can be a settlement.

These were, and are, North Vietnam's other three points: Neither side, North or South, must have any alliance with a foreign power, pending reunification of North and South; any settlement in South Vietnam must be in accordance with the program of the Viet Cong; and the reunification of the two Viet-nams must be done without outside influence.

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people who have problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help US!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teenage questions to Helen Help US!, this newspaper.

MOTHERS NEED TO GET AWAY FROM THEM ALL

Dear Helen:

My mother thinks I should take my children (three years and less than a year old) with me wherever I go, always. When I ask her to babysit she refuses. I ask someone else, and she tries to shame me and make me feel badly about leaving them home. She says a mother is cruel not to include her children in everything.

Helped her raise my little brothers and sisters while she was working.

Is it too much to want one evening or afternoon out a month with just your husband? Am I wrong in wanting my children to be a little less dependent on me as they grow older?—LOVING MOTHER

Dear Mother:

All mothers need to "get away from them all" occasionally, and all husbands and wives should have time alone together. I disagree with only one part of your letter: ONE afternoon or evening out a month isn't often enough!—H

Dear Helen: When you read newspaper accounts of boys being arrested for assaults on a teenage girl, the reaction is often, "She asked for it."

I want to tell everyone how unfair it is to jump to conclusions.

We have a wonderful family. Our seven children, my husband and I are very close. Our lives are filled with love, understanding and mutual help. I guess we couldn't have come through, and put this experience behind us, if this weren't so.

Last month our 13-year-old daughter accepted a ride home from school with an older boy she thought she knew very well. Our children are taught that if they cannot be home on time, they must call. When I received no call from her, I checked everywhere and then notified the police. We found her at 7 p.m. in a condition I'll never forget for the rest of my life. She had been criminally attacked by the boy and one of his friends.

I shiver to think how many

Notes on a Winter Day

It was an official 22 degrees this morning in a cold wave that has seen 19-and 20-degree days pretty frequently, with a season's low one morning of 14. But everything is relative. The North is getting blizzards and sub-zero weather, and sub-tropical Florida is recording overnight lows of under 40—swimming one day and huddling in an overcoat the next.

The Hope man I felt for this morning had the coldest job on earth next to a fireman up a ladder or a telephone lineman up a pole—he was a service station operator hosing down his concrete apron... starting the day right no matter what.

Everyone loves a fireplace, even the crowded apartment-dwellers of New York—where firewood is almost non-existent and $1 a log when you do find it. Wire report says that at the $1 price delicatessens are beginning to stock firewood and the party-giver brings home his logs with the groceries.

In our wood-working section of the country this suggests a new industry for the luxury trade in the big cities. Researchers are testing manufacturing methods to make synthetic fireplace logs out of coagulated sawdust—which might become a profitable sideline for lumber mills.

A long time ago the late John Durst, founder of the Forrest City (Ark.) Times-Herald, carried over the masthead of his newspaper this line (quoted from memory): "What Arkansas needs is fewer staples and more items for the luxury trade."

This sawdust log suggest things. If a plain log brings $1 in New York maybe you could impregnate our Arkansas-made sawdust log with perfume and get $1.25 in the metropolis.

Say you started with logs in the manner of My Sin, Tabu, Evening in Paris, Chanel No. 5, or Prince Machabelli, at $1.25. If the market took it you could try a second pressing of the sawdust phoney drenched in Ambush and ask $1.50.

Quote Unforgettable at $1.75. Or make a final run with Private Affair, demand $2—and pray for a blizzard!

No Opposition to Communist

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Romanian Foreign Minister Corneliu Manescu is reported to have received assurances he will not be opposed in his bid to become the first president of the U.N. General Assembly from a Communist country.

Informed sources said the only other known candidates, Emilio Arenales Catalan of Guatemala and German Zea of Colombia, have yielded to Manescu even though this would have been Latin America's year under the traditional system of regional rotation.

Power Struggle in Lesotho

MASERU, Lesotho (AP) — King Moshoeshoe II has yielded in his power struggle with Premier Leabua Jonathan and signed an agreement to observe the constitution giving the government the authority Jonathan sought.

The king, who had been under house arrest for nine days, agreed Thursday to abdicate if he breaks the pact. Moshoeshoe wanted to control the security force and foreign policy of the former British territory which became independent last year.

Cincinnati Pay Raises

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Salaries of Cincinnati's 1,800 policemen and firemen were boosted $1,000 a year Thursday by the city council, which also granted raises to all other city employees.

This will bring the maximum yearly pay for patrolmen and firefighters to $7,921. Their starting pay is now $5,965. Firemen and policemen must be paid the same under the city charter.

Americans in Vietnam Now 473,000

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH
WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. commitment to the Vietnam war has passed another significant landmark: more Americans are waging war than at any time during the Korean conflict.

Pentagon figures showed today that at least 473,000 Americans either are serving in South Vietnam or in support elements nearby. At its peak, the over-all U. S. commitment in Korea was 472,000.

The statistics indicate that the United States now is fighting its biggest war since World War II.

Latest U. S. reports place about 390,000 fighting men inside Vietnam — 245,000 Army, 23,000 Navy, 68,000 Marine Corps and 54,000 Air Force. An additional 50,000 men are assigned to the 7th U. S. Fleet off shore of the Southeast Asian country and there are at least 25,000 soldiers in Thailand and 8,000 on Guam aiding the Vietnamese effort.

These figures do not include more than 50,000 military men stationed in Okinawa and the Philippines.

In June 1953, at the height of the Korean conflict, there were about 327,000 American soldiers in Korea and another 145,000 serving in support roles at sea and in Japan.

An initial landmark was achieved last October when U. S. forces inside Vietnam totaled 328,000 and surpassed the Korean in-country peak. Since then the American commitment has climbed by more than 60,000 troops — nearly 20,000 a month.

No official strength figures have been made available, but the Pentagon has not denied repeated reports that current plans call for a total in-country force of more than 475,000 over the next 12 months.

One Injured in Accident Here Sunday

Two accidents were investigated by City Police over the weekend, one resulting in a serious injury.

At 6th and Main Streets an auto driven by A. C. Kirby was hit by another driven by Jimmy Porterfield. Mr. Kirby sustained rib injuries and was taken to a local hospital for treatment.

City Policemen charged Mr. Kirby with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Sunday morning a car driven by Carlton King Jr. pulled out of the Bobcat drive-in too fast, King lost control and the vehicle overturned on the Highway.

The car was badly damaged and city Officer Long and McCulley charged King with reckless driving.

Negro Held in Shooting of Woman

City Police report Monday that Jimmy Lee Lindsey, Negro, was arrested Sunday following an argument on North Hazel Street in which he allegedly shot Helen Frances Thomas with a 22 cal. weapon.

The woman was taken to a local hospital for treatment. Officers said Lindsey has been charged with aggravated assault, carrying a concealed weapon and discharging firearms inside the city.

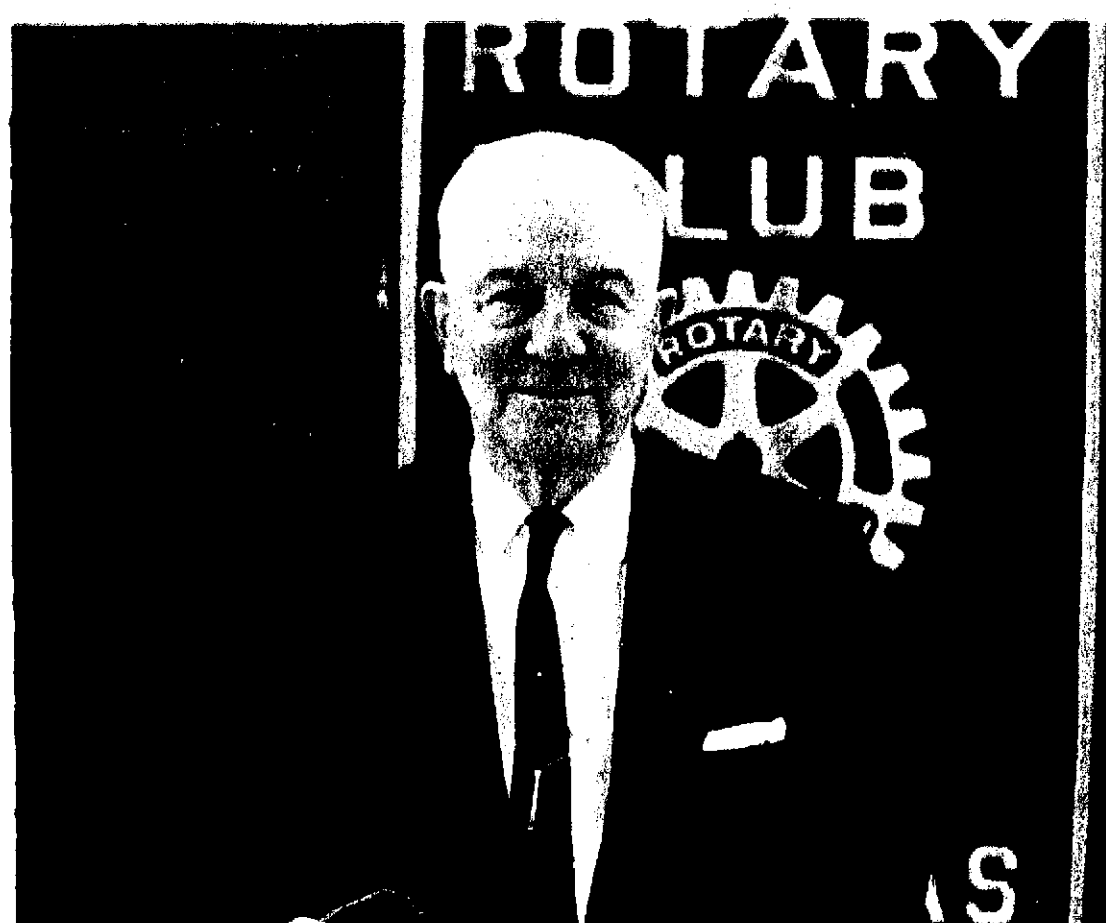

ASTC Agrees to Name Change

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas State Teachers College Board of Trustees has agreed to change the name of the school to State College of Arkansas.

Dr. Silas D. Snow, ASTC president, said a bill seeking the change will be introduced in the early days of the General Assembly.

"We want a new name in keeping with what we have to offer," Snow said. He said he did not consider the proposal controversial.

Legislature Starts 66th Session

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas General Assembly organizes for its 66th biennial session today in a prelude to inauguration Tuesday of the state's first Republican governor since Reconstruction.

The 1967 session starts at noon. Within an hour the Senate is expected to elect Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs as its president pro tempore and the House is expected to elect Rep. Sterling Cockrill of Little Rock as speaker.

Then both houses will set a joint session Tuesday for retiring Gov. Orval Faubus' farewell address and the swearing in of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

Faubus speech is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Rockefeller will take the oath at 11 a.m. The governor-elect will depart from tradition and make his inaugural address at Robinson Auditorium at 1 p.m. The speech will be followed by a reception at the governor's mansion.

Faubus plans to drive from the capitol to Huntsville, passing up the inauguration in which he has been the main figure since 1955.

Another Republican, Maurice Britt, will be sworn in as lieutenant governor. Other constitutional officers who will take their oaths, all Democrats, are Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell, Secretary of State Kelly Bryant, Auditor Jimmie Jones, Land Commissioner Sam Jones and Treasurer Nancy Hall.

Purcell will be taking office for the first time. The Joneses are starting their fifth terms. Mrs. Hall and Bryant their third terms.

The serious work of legislating will be delayed at least until Wednesday.

When lawmakers get down to work, they face a host of problems, not the least of which will be determining the working relationship with a Republican governor.

There are only three Republicans in the legislature, all in the 100-member House. The 35 senators are Democrats.

The toughest knot of the 66th day session is expected to be division of state revenues. Rockefeller has guaranteed generous allotments to the public school funds and welfare. Budget requests far exceed anticipated revenues in other areas.

Rockefeller also has promised to move toward governmental and prison reform. He has indicated he will proceed slowly in these fields.

The most bitter fights may come over side issues such as abolition of the death penalty and university status for Arkansas State College.

Several legislators, prompted by Rockefeller's declaration of opposition to capital punishment, have said they will move for abolition. Law enforcement groups are geared to fight any such legislation.

Arkansas State's desire for university status was a hot issue in the 1959 session and it could disrupt this legislature if the college's backers are willing to settle for "name only" university status and Rockefeller and other legislators are unwilling to give it to them.

Little activity is expected in the tax field. Rockefeller has said flatly that he will not ask for any new taxes in this session. Legislators seldom look favorably on taxes without solid pressure from the executive branch.

Gearing the state's educational machinery to its drive for industry may be difficult to implement although there is general agreement on the need.

Revival to Start at 1st Assembly

The Rev. and Mrs. Louis Neely of El Paso, Texas will begin revival services Wednesday, January 11, at the First Assembly of God, 322 North Main Street.

Services will continue nightly, except Saturday, through January 29, beginning at 7:00 p.m. "Rev. Neely is one of the leading Evangelists of the Assemblies of God. For most of the past year the Rev. Neely, (Pronounced Knee-lee) has traveled in South America conducting revival campaigns," so stated Rev. Willhite, Pastor of the Church.

Pastor Willhite extends an invitation to everyone in this area regardless of church affiliation.

Florida Gov. Plans to Marry Soon

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Claude R. Kirk Jr. says he will marry a 32-year-old blonde from Germany within two months.

The announcement Sunday ended a week of mystery that attracted national attention as the two vacationed with friends in the Florida Keys.

"A very good friend of mine has agreed to marry me," the governor told a news conference.

With Kirk, 40, when he made the announcement were Miss Erika Mattfeld, his bride-to-be, and the governor's two daughters by a previous marriage, Sarah, 18, and Kitty, 17.

Kirk said he met Miss Mattfeld in Rio de Janeiro several years ago.

Cacus May Decide What Congress Will Do With Adam Powell

By JOHN BECKLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The curtain goes up on the 90th Congress Tuesday but the action starts today at party caucuses being held to prepare for what should be a rousing first act.

House Democrats and Republicans hold separate meetings today to seek party unity on a number of touchy questions, a chief one being what to do about Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., whose right to a seat is being challenged.

The showdown over Powell's House seat Tuesday, when the new Congress is sworn in, will launch a long day that won't end until President Johnson has delivered his State of the Union address to a joint session at 9:30 p.m. EST.

The Senate also will take a running start into controversy Tuesday when a group of liberals renews its long fight to change the Senate filibuster rule, which requires a vote of two-thirds of the members present to cut off debate.

The Senate liberals want to make it easier to end debate but usually find their efforts frustrated by threat of a filibuster. Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., thinks the chances are better this year.

The stormy start in both houses could preview the course the 90th Congress will follow.

The Republicans, bolstered by 47 new seats in the House and a bright handful of attractive new senators, will make it a rugged session for Johnson and his congressional leaders.

The brooding menace of the Vietnam war also figures to mark the work of the 90th Congress. Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., brings it to the fore early, calling Secretary of State Dean Rusk before his Senate Foreign Relations Committee next Monday for secret testimony and on Jan. 23 for public questioning.

An early task facing Congress will be paying the mounting costs of the war. Johnson has said he will ask for between $9 billion and $10 billion shortly to add onto this year's defense budget.

The nation's system for drafting men to fight the war faces scrutiny by the new Congress. Hearings will be held soon by the House Armed Services Committee but at this point no major changes are expected.

Also due for prompt action is legislation that would increase Social Security benefits and raise the national debt ceiling.

Radioactive Fallout Worst

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
TOKYO (AP) — Communist China's latest nuclear test dumped the highest radioactive fallout ever recorded in Japan, the chief of the government's radioactivity countermeasures headquarters announced today.

Susumu Nikaido said the radiation level had not reached yet a level dangerous to humans.

The governor-elect also named an executive secretary, three administrative assistants and four office secretaries Saturday.

Marion B. Burton, 35, a lawyer and one of Rockefeller's pilots, was appointed executive secretary. He will work closely with Rockefeller in getting programs before the General Assembly.

The three administrative assistants are Bob Scott of Rogers and Ray Cooper and Marshall Martin, both of Little Rock.

Scott, 32, a lawyer, is serving his second term as chairman of the Young Republican League for Arkansas. Cooper, 31, is a national committeeman for the Young Republican League and is a former editor of the Russellville Courier Democrat. Martin, 28, was an assistant director in Rockefeller's gubernatorial campaign.

Rockefeller said Mrs. Marilyn Bledsoe will be his secretary, that Mrs. Florence Pence will be Burton's secretary and that Miss Lena Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Wanda Tudor will serve as office secretaries.

Mrs. Patsy Ellis, Gov. Orval Faubus' secretary for the past 12 years, will remain on the job during the transition period, Rockefeller said.

Biggest Rail Merger to U. S. Court

By STEPHEN M. AUG

WASHINGTON (AP) — The biggest business merger in U. S. history goes before the Supreme Court today for six hours of arguments.

The court must decide whether a lower court was correct in refusing to delay consummation of the $6 billion Pennsylvania-New York Central Railroad merger until the fate of three smaller Eastern railroads is settled.

A three-judge federal court in New York City refused Oct. 4 to delay the merger, originally set to go into effect Aug. 1. On Oct. 18, the Supreme Court decided to review the decision and held up the deal until it could hear the case.

Fourteen lawyers are scheduled to argue the case today. Court observers said this was one of the largest legal aggregations ever to argue a single case in the court.

The case involves virtually every railroad in the Northeast — but none of them is at the merger itself.

The merger is opposed by industrialist Milton J. Shapp, unsuccessful 1966 Democratic candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, and the city of Scranton, Pa.

The railroads are interested primarily in the conditions the Interstate Commerce Commission set to protect three smaller lines which said they would be hurt substantially by the merger. The three are the Erie-Lackawanna, Delaware & Hudson, and Boston & Maine.

The three want the merger held up until their own futures are decided by the ICC. They want to become part of the Norfolk & Western Railway system. An ICC examiner recommended this Dec. 22, but no final commission decision is expected for a few months.

The three also want to delay the merger until the ICC decides on conditions to protect them against possible financial harm caused by the merger. The ICC held hearings on this last autumn and has the matter under consideration.

The other railroads involved in the case have attacked the protective conditions from another direction. They say the conditions would create a community of interest between the three lines and the Penn-Central which would divert freight traffic away from them.

These railroads are the Baltimore & Ohio-Chesapeake & Ohio, Norfolk & Western, Reading, Jersey Central, Western Maryland and the Chicago & Eastern Illinois.

The public is invited to this benefit program.

Airman Johnny H. Duke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Duke of 1501 South Pine, Hope, Ark., has been assigned to Offutt Air Force Base, Nebraska, after completing Air Force basic training at San Antonio, Texas.

The airman, a 1966 graduate of Hope High School, will be trained on the job as a supply specialist with the Strategic Air Command.

Major James R. Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Fuller, Rt. 2, Hope, Ark., was assigned recently as subsector senior advisor, Vietnamese Army 111 Corps in Chon Thanh, Vietnam.

Major Fuller was last stationed at Fort Dix, New Jersey. He received his commission through the Reserve Officers' Training Corps program at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, where he received a B. S. degree.

Major Fuller is a graduate of Hope, Ark. High School.

Reds Down U.S. Plane, 7 Killed

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Communist groundfire today downed a U.S. AC4U Dragon plane—popularly known as "Puff the Magic Dragon"—and all seven crewmen aboard were killed, a U.S. spokesman announced. In the Mekong Delta, Viet Cong frogmen sank an American dredge, the fourth largest in the world.

The twin-engine C47, armed with three six-barrel galling guns capable of firing 18,000 rounds per minute was brought down 26 miles southwest of Quang Ngai City, near the central coast. It was the second Dragon ship lost in the war.

Two U.S. civilians were reported killed and one was reported missing aboard the 170-foot dredge, the Jamaica Bay, which sank in 20 feet of water near My Tho, about 35 miles southwest of Saigon.

Closer to the capital city, Communist guns shelled a British tanker and two Vietnam navy minesweepers.

Only small-scale ground action was reported in the war and the U.S. air offensive against North Vietnam was hampered by very bad flying weather.

But from the Mekong Delta 40 miles south of Saigon came word of the sl... ..

were used as human shields by Viet Cong advancing against a unit of South Vietnamese Rangers.

A U.S. spokesman said the Communists herded the children and some adult civilians in front of them. Despite warnings from the Rangers, they kept moving forward and fired on the government troops.

The spokesman said the Rangers had no choice but to return the fire. In addition to the 6 children killed or wounded, nine adults were wounded.

The British ship hit by Viet Cong fire was identified as the 12,090-ton Shell tanker Haus-trum from London. A U.S. military spokesman said she was hit in the superstructure, fantail and bow, the captain was wounded in the arm and leg and a crewman was killed.

The captain was taken from his ship but insisted on returning on board and took the tanker under her own power to Nha Be, the oil depot near Saigon.

Man Hit and Killed by Car

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
James A. Caruso, 44, of North Little Rock was killed Sunday night when he was struck by a car about one mile north of the McAlmont overpass on a service road to U.S. 167.

State Trooper Bill Couch said Caruso was struck by a car driven by Forrest McGaha of North Little Rock.

Caruso was one of two persons killed in weekend traffic accidents in Arkansas, an Associated Press count showed today.

The other victim was Ova L. Rogers, 43, of Cabot, Rogers died Friday night when his car slammed into a bridge and burst into flames about one mile south of Jacksonville on U.S. 67.

Fighting in Laos Reported

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Reliable military sources reported that Communist forces launched a large-scale attack early today against Na Kiang, in the north central Laotian province of Xieng Khouang.

The sources said the attackers were North Vietnamese troops and forces of the Communist Pathet Lao, with the North Vietnamese predominating.

Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma told a news conference the Jan. election of a new National Assembly had been held without incidents and the assembly will probably convene Feb. 1.

The 1962 Geneva agreement on Laos provided for a coalition government including the Pathet Lao, but the Communists have boycotted Souvanna's government since 1963.
